

Curriculum Arte - Rosario d'Espinay Saint-Luc

Rosario D'Espinay Saint-Luc was born in 1971 in Palmira, Colombia. French father, mother Colombian she came to settle in Provence, France in 2001, having lived since her early childhood in Ecuador. All of which made her sensitive to the harmony of cultures, the importance of light and the diversity of perceptions. From early school, pencils and brushes are her toys.

1995

She enters the workshop of Spanish painter Miguel Gayo. For three years she studies drawing and painting of human figures.

1996

She learns the techniques of abstraction and acrylic media.

2000

In Quito, she participates in a collective work: painting a canvas 100m long "For Peace and Justice", along with the 35 most renowned Ecuadorian painters (Marcelo Aguirre, Miguel Betancourt, Carlos Rosero, etc.), an event organized by the foundation Mariana de Jesús. This painting was exhibited in Peru, Mexico, Argentina, the United States.

She discovers Europe to better vibrate with Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Picasso, Zao Wou-Ki, and many others. She is dazzled by the modern and contemporary art museum "Georges Pompidou" and FIAC art.
